STOREY TELLER. Painter Stephen Westfall said of David Storey's whimsically modernist technique, "I sometimes see his imagery as walking a tightrope between the museum and the cocktail napkin cartoon." Mr. Storey infuses his paintings with the sunny mood of his southern Californian childhood, using bright colors and abstract shapes. Through March 6, Tuesday – Saturday, 10a.m. – 6p.m., CUE Art Foundation, 511 W. 25th St., between 10th and 11th Avenues, 212-206-3593, free.
