LAUNCH YOUR ARTISTIC CAREER!

jumpstART is an after-school program for students who have demonstrated an interest in the visual arts. Under the guidance of dedicated arts educators in an on-site classroom, you will receive fine arts training, as well as gain valuable experience through the process of conceiving, organizing and curating your own exhibition. At the same time you are independently creating your artwork for the exhibit, you will work together as a team with other students to promoting your exhibition, not just in your local communities but in the larger New York community. jumpstART gives you the opportunity to work closely with artists, designers, printers, curators and arts administrators—giving you exposure to the broad spectrum of career opportunities in the arts, while obtaining key skills that will be applicable to all aspects of your artistic, educational and career lives. At the end of the program, the exhibition will be on view at CUE’s Chelsea gallery space for a week with a public opening reception.
